

Popular Tent Canopies

Everyone loves an outdoor party. Unfortunately, Mother Nature is often an uninvited and unwelcome guest.

Barbecues, weddings, birthday parties, reunions, sports activities; whatever the occasion, if it's done outdoors you'll definitely be wise to invest in a canopy tent. In rain or in sunshine, your guests will welcome the protection as they stay warm and dry on cool rainy days, or seek shelter from the blazing sun on bright summer afternoons.

While tent canopies do offer much-needed protection from the elements, they also add a stylish touch to your outdoor affair. You'll find tent canopies in a variety of sizes and designs. You can choose from different materials and varying degrees of quality. It all depends upon your budget.

There are big party canopies for larger events with lots of guests, pop-up canopies for simple family gatherings and occasions, and very basic tent canopies that offer a corner retreat in your backyard.

The following outline will give you a better idea of what's available, with approximate prices:
